

Spur of the moment, flexible and planable.
The Conference Flatrates in the Pfalzbau.

“We create space and bring people together to exchange knowledge, to experience culture and to make visions come true.“

The Pfalzbau’s reopening introduced the “trio” of possibilities: theatre, concerts as well as conferences and events all under one roof –even at the same time and in combination with each other. A cultural attraction, a place for meetings and an innovative location for events of all types, the newly renovated Pfalzbau Ludwigshafen is making its mark not only regionally but in all of Germany. Here elements of both the ultra-modern and historical past melt together into a unique whole, in both the architecture as well as the technical abilities. This linkage of culture and business only increases the charm of the Region and offers visitors that little bit more value, which will successfully impress.

Look forward to holding your next event at the Pfalzbau!
